Memorandum

The Dy Comrs docket No 1147 of the 29th ultimo reporting on the lands attached to the Banaiv ghatta Temple in the Anekal Taluk.

From the above report it would appear, tho this was not explained previously by the Dy Comr in his Pet No 766 of the 28th Novr last, that the lands in question were virtually Govt lands held by some order of a former date (which has no stability)

2 If under the circumstances of the pattas being in the name of the temple and not of the individual occupants the temple authorities which to contest the the right of any auction purchaser to cultivate the land purchased, they can do so in the proper Court. The case is not one in which Govt. can take the initiative

3 The vernacular papers are herewith returned.

To

The Chief Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore

Sir,

With reference to your docket No. 7098/180 of 16th March 1886, I have the honor to submit answers to the corresponding questions asked in the above.

(a) There are no records in the Taluk to shew in whose name the villages of Sampigehalli, Kempanaikenhalli and Kariappanhalli were entered in the accounts when they were originally held by the temple of Champakadhamaswami of Bannerghatta village, Anekal Taluk; but from the accompanying Ayakat Patti (No. 1 it appears that

Jasdik of Kanteran Pagodahs 4/3 and fanams 2/2 was originally enjoyed by the temple for which the marginally noted villages were * granted on Sarvamanya tenure — From the above it is presumed that they were originally entered in the name of the temple only.
(b) It cannot now be ascertained under what circumstances the villages were resumed in 1784—85 and there are no other records than the mere statement of the old Shan-bhogue marked A to throw any light on this point.
(c) It cannot be now ascertained in whose names the pattas were made out in 1835-36, Prabhava.
(d) In 1870 Kollear Venkataramana and others mortgaged their lands to one Kanchi Munisami Moodliar some of which were sold by the Civil Court in 1871, and 1877 to Narasimha and Munisami Moodliar who are now in possession of them. Another land was also sold by the Revenue authorities for arrears of Kandayam due by the land holder, a Sweeper of the temple. The total extent of land so alienated is K. C. P. 2-2-13/4 assessed at Rs. 38/4/.

(e) As these lands were lightly assessed in consideration of their being held by the Servicedars of the temple, when the villages were resumed by Government and as they receive a small monthly allowance from the temple in addition to the above lands they are compelled to render the service required of them to the temple.

(f) As the office holders did not perform their service due to the temple properly and alienated some of the lands, the Jamabundi Officer in 1877, Mr. W Portens the Pattas to be made out in the name of the temple and these three holders.

I have the honor to be

In their petitions to this Office addressed on September and october last Maddale Muniappa and others residing at Bannerughatta yegane Hobli Anekal Taluq, pray that the joint pattas of their lands issued in their names as well as in the name of ~~the~~ the temple of Sree Champaka Dhama Swamy in that Village may be ordered to be confined to their names the name of the temple being excluded.

2 The facts of the case are as detailed below

Bannerughatta
Kariappanahally
Sampigehalli
Kempenayakanahalli
Varadahalli

The temple of Sree Champaka Dhama Swamy at Bannerughatta originally held the nearly alienated Villages as Sarvamanium besides a wet land measuring 5 khandees near Chikkanahalli in the present Kachanahalli Taluq a quarter of a seer of oil from every oil mill in Bangalore

Some grain termed "Kalu Bhatha" from the lands under the jeganis tank. It cannot never be ascertained how these items of inam dea were first granted to the temple. The pendebare of the temple when it enjoyed these Inams amounted to 413 pagodas - 2 fanams and 8 Visas as per marginal details.

4 In 1784 A.D. during the Administration of Tippoo Sultan these Inams were resumed: the reason for this is not apparent. From this date up to 1800 A.D. when a money grant of 120 pagodas was authorized to the Temple by Dewan Purniah it is not known whether the temple was in receipt of any allowance for its Expenses.

5 After resumption, the marginally noted villages were leased out first to one Amara Sing for three years. This individual having demanded assessment for waste lands belonging to temple servants some of these left their villages and and he was not able to satisfy the Govt. demand The Bangalore Ruling authorities in 1786-87 cancelled his contract and revised and slightly reduced the assessment on the lands in the villages including those of the temple servants and leased them out again to another individual by name Venkata Rao for three years from 1786/87 for 280 pagodas in the first year, 320 in the second and 360 in the third. In 1789/90, the contract was given to one Soobbiah. The revn of the villages which had risen to 380 pagodas in 1790-91 fell to 200 pagodas in 1798/99 The reason for this decrease is not apparent. In 1799/1800, a money grant of 120 pagodas was sanctioned to the temple by Dewan Purnaiah. In 1811/12 the late Maha Raja on the occasion of his visit to the temple raised the grant to 170 pagodas directing the Amildar to execute the repair needed to the temple at the cost of the Govt.

6 During the reduction of the Jasdeik of all the temples in the Province towards the latter part of the late Maha Rajah's Administration the Jasdeik of the temple in question was reduced to 90 pagodas, the amount at which it now stands. The temple also continues to enjoy a small Inam with a beriz of Rs 2-14-8 termed Cheekappaiahna ~~Tota~~ Thota in the village of Bannerughatta. It would appear to be usual to utilize dried trees in the Thop for the purposes of the temple.

7 Previous to 1834 the date of the appointment of Sepoys of Divisions, there was no practice of issuing Receipts or Pattahs for ordinary Cundayam lands except under special circumstances. The practice was soon afterwards established. In the case of the lands held by the temple servants, it cannot be ascertained what pattas were originally issued to them. Since 1873, when the Survey forms were introduced ever into the unsurveyed Saluegs Receipt Books are being distributed among Ryots instead of Pattas.

8 In 1870-71, the land of one Venkata Ramana, a Servant of the temple was sold for a Cowl decree. This does not appear to have been brought to the notice of the Survey Office.

† Amils were 846 dd 30/10/76.

9 In 1874, the Amildar of Amkai observed that the Servants of the temple were in attendance to their work: he Summoned them and took a Muchelika from them for the due performance of their work. The Muchelika Seigned by the †marginally named individuals runs as follows:-

In case of our failure to do so, we will not object to our Patta lands, wet and dry, which we hold for service in the temple or houses and temple allowances being all resumed by Govt and others appointed in our places".

10 In consequence of some pecuniary transaction between the Parapatyagar and one Muniswami Moodaly of Anekal, the latter obtained a decree over the former and his heirs in the Court of the Munsiff Bangalore and procured an attachment of their lands: the representation made to the Court by the Amildar of Anekal that these were lands held for service in the temple was of no avail. The Amildar, therefore, on his urgee to the Muzrey Officer No 844 d 30th Oct 1876 represented that if the lands of the temple servants were held liable for Civil Decrees, it would be impossible to procure Servants for the small allowances offered by the temple, that it was necessary to assert the right of the temple for the lands and in this view recommended that the lands be registered in the name of the temple, the name of the Servant paying Condagem for each land being also mentioned in the Pattas for the same. After some correspondence, the Revenue officer said that in the absence of previous references he could not order the registry of the Pattas in the name of the temple and directed that the matter should be brought to the special notice of the Sub-Division officer and his orders thereon carried out.

11 Accordingly during the Jamabandy of the year Shalivahana 1876-77, the Amildar laid the matter before the Jamabandy Officer and represented that the Village of Bannerughatta had been formerly enjoyed as Sarwa manya by the temple of Chenpaka Dhama Swamy afterwards resumed by The lands in the village which had granted by the temple its Servants When the village was in its holding were continued after the resumption of the village to the same Servants on condition besides small allowances in money on condition of their performing their usual Services in the temple

This arrangement generally continued.
Some of their lands were subsequently sold for civil debts and Revenue arrears. With the small allowances granted by the Govt, the temple Servants found it impossible to maintain themselves and began to shirk work in the temple. To entertain others in their places was impossible inasmuch as their allowances were too small to attract any body for their work. Service in the temple was entirely dependent on the lands allowed to the servants and the right of these lands belonged to the temple If these lands lands were allowed to remain in the names of the Servants, they alienate them and so in the temple would suffer. Under these circumstances the Huzur recommended that joint Pattas of the lands be made out in the names of the temple and its Servants specifying in the Pattas the Services for which they were held by the Servants. The recommendation was approved by the Jamabandy officer on 31st March 1877. The Pattas were accordingly modified

12. In 1877-78, the land of the sweeper in the temple assessed at Rs 8-12-5 was sold for arrears of revenue and the said Muniswamy Mudaly purchased it and Mr Syed Nasurreddien ordered Patta for it to be issued in his name. This individual also bought the lands of the Parapatyagar for the decree he held against him as above stated and applied to the Revenue Authorities for the Pattas of these being transferred to him. After some correspondence on the Subject, the Nandidroog Division Commissioner in his memo No. 1244/1012 dd 6/2/1879 remarked that if under circumstance of the villas being in the name the Temple and not of e individual occupants, he temple authorities ished to contest the right any auction purchaser cultivate the land purchased they might do so in the proper court and that the case was not one in which the Govt could take the initiative.

13 Meneswamy Mudaliar refused to render himself liable to the Service required of the Parapatigagar whose lands he had purchased. He withheld payment of Condagem on the lands in the absence of Patta for them The Sub Division Officer therefore directed, in his order No 95 D 4 June 1879 that the lands may be registered in his name subject to the right, title and conditions under which they had been held by the Parapatigagar

14. While one Hoovina Ramaswamy applied in 1883 for permission to cut land, some temple servants objected. Thes undervedual is said to have Substituted one Ramiah to do hes work of Supplying flowers to the temple. Ramiah enjoyed Ramaswamy's land for two years paying the assessment thereon through him; afterwards Ramaswamy interfered with its produce. this was complained against. Maddale Muniah neglected his service in the temple and refused to give up his land or to employ a substitute for him for the remuneration payable by the temple. Several of the temple Servants - except the Archak, the Parapatyegar and a few others - complained to the Dy Commr against the joint Pattas for their lands and solicited that the Pattas may be ordered to be issued Exclusively in their names. The Dy Commr. declined to interfere with the Existing Pattas till the Survey Settlement

* 25/9/85.

Grounds of the present [illegible]

15 The Petitioners now represent to this Office that the lands were enjoyed in succession by their ancestors on augment of the assessment levied by them to Govt.

Pattas being in their names, that, in the year whether, without their Razeenama, the Pattas were made out in the name of the temple of Sri Shenpaka Dhama Swami and that this has seriously interfered with their hereditary rights to the lands.

16. In reply to the questions put in this Office No 7098/180 dt 16th March 1886, the Dy Comr Bangalore, in his letter No 783 dt 18th January last, remarks that the ~~xxxxx~~ Villages named in para 3 above were originally entered in the name of the temple; it cannot be ascertained under what circumstances the Villages were resumed in 1784/85 and in whose names the Pattas were made out in 1835-36; the alienation of their lands by the temple Servants was made since 1870: as these lands were ~~lightly~~ assessed in consideration of their being held by the Servicedars of the temple, when the Villages were resumed by the Govt and and as they receive a small monthly allowance from the temple in addition to the above lands, they are compelled to render the service required of them to the temple. The Dy Commr. adds that as the Office-holders did not perform their service duly to the temple properly and alienated some of the lands, the Jamabandy Officer in 1877, Mr W Portous ordered the Pattas to be made out in the names of the temple and these Office-holders.

17 The papers now submitted do not contain any information as regards the lands of the temple servants in the Villages other than Bannerghatta alluded to in para 3 above 18 As regards the temple referred to, the Inam register is said to mention that the Govt grant to it is Rs 260 of which Rs 86-3- are spent on account of Talabdars.

19 The Survey of the Anekal Taluq is now almost over the Settlement is about to be given. It is very probable.

The lands are not Inam lands but ordinary Sirkar Cundayam lands. The question at issue ~~between the Temple & the Ryots whether the occ is occupancy~~ is whether the occupancy right is vested in the Temple or in the Cultivating Ryots — The Evidence appears to show that the occupancy right is with the Temple, & ~~that the Patta shd be in its name~~

On the other hands if the Ryots claim an occupancy right in the lands to the exclusion of the Temple they are at liberty to establish their claim by suit in the Civil Courts without such an adjudication no change will be allowed in the Patta which has stood in the joint names of the Temple & the Ryots since 1876/77 -

That the Ryots hold as tenants under the Temple, the rent being in the shape of Service rendered to the Temple - under this view of the case I am of opinion that the Patta shd stand in the Exclusive name of the Temple -

Read Petitions dated 21st Sept. 1885 & October 1886 from Munisyappa & others of Bannerghatta, Anekal Taluk, praying that the Joint pattahs of their lands issued in their names & in that of the temple of Sree Champaka Dhama Swami in that village may be ordered to be confined to their names, the name of the temple being excluded.

Read Bangalore Dy Comr's letters Nos. 963 & 783 dated respectively the 7th January 1886 & 18th January 1887 together with the Ver: papers received therewith

C. No. 2307 d 29/31. 3.87

Order thereon:—

The lands are not Inam lands but ordinary Sirkar Candayan lands. The question at issue is whether the occupancy right is vested in the temple or in the cultivating ryots. The evidence appears to show that the occupant right is with the Temple, & that the ryots hold as quasi tenants under the Temple, the rent being in the shape of service renderable to the Temple. Under this view of the case, the Dewan is of opinion that the Patta should stand in the Exclusive name of the Temple.

2. The Temple, through its managers, has the right to contest alienations and recover the alienated lands in due course of law. On the other hand if the ryots claim an occupancy right to the lands to the exclusion of the temple they are at liberty to establish their claim by suit in the Civil Court Without such an application no change will be allowed in the

A brief account of the dedication of the lands to the temple is required. ~~and~~ On what conditions they were given to the temple servants and why the Puttahs were made in their names.

Land No. 1 Parputtegar's land. It appears from Column No. 7 of the Tamarese Statement that the Puttah was in Parputtegar's name at the time of attachment and there is nothing to show how it came to be transferred in the name of the idol. The date of the last sale is also required.

Lands Nos. 2, 3 and. When were the Nos. 2 and 4 sold for arrears of Candayam and No. 3 by the Civil Court and in whose names the Puttahs stood on the dates of Sales.

A Sum of 430 Pagodas seem to have been originally fixed as "Tasdik for the Temple, and in lieu of Cash payment the marginally villages of which the assessment was equal to the Tasdik, were granted as Sur vamaneyem to the Temple. A portion of these lands were given to the Temple Servants on Kandayem, the remainder having been retained under "Batayee" With the amount of Kandayem thus Recovered and the Realizations from "Batayee" the Temple Servants were paid their fixed Salaries. The Cost of Processions &c. of the Temple were also defrayed therefrom. But during the Administration of Tippu Sultan the villages are said to have been brought under attachment, and latterly in the year Parabhava (1807-8) such of the lands as were in the enjoyment of the Temple servants in the said Survamaneyem villages were confirmed to them (the Temple Servants) on largely reduced assessments. The Temple Servants were required to perform the Temple Services in the name of the Idol, the enjoyment of the lands being continued to the original holders.

4. The Patta of the lands, which stood in the name of the Parpategar was transferred to that of the Idol on the 30th October 1876, evidently as they were attached in satisfaction of Civil Courts decree. The Court sale was, however, held on the 15-16-17-18-19-21-22 and 23rd May 1877 after the Patta was transferred in the name of the Idol. No. 1 Parpategar's Land Lands No. 2 and 4 were sold for arrears of Kandayen on 18th August 1877 and 13th June 1876 respectively. Land No. 2 — G Muney & Land No. 4 Parvatee.

Land No. 3 was sold under Civil Court's decree, about the year 1872, the exact date not being known. The Pattas stood in the names of the Temple servants at the time of these sales. Land No. 3 Venkatrama.

5 Although from the above summary of the Records it is evident that the lands had not been entered in the name Idol before the attachment of some of them, and the sale of the others, yet the object for which they were granted originally being clear and this was understood and acted up to by the

2. The lands seem to have been granted to the Temple Servants for--dentty for performing their res-pective duties in connection with the Temple. The trifling salaries paid to them, were by no means sufficient and but for the grant of these lands on reduced Kandayems the services would not have been performed these many years. On the other hand if their services had no connection with the grant of the lands, there was no reason for showing any extraordinary concessions to them The Kandayem would not have been certainly reduced to one half, one third and one fourth, the ordinary rate according to the importance of their services. Further if this was not the mutual understanding, the lands would never have continued in the enjoyment of the Temple Servants, continuously for so long a period, and the Temple duties would never have been regularly conducted for the trifling fiscal Salaries, which can hardly be sufficient for a days maintenance.

3. As there seems to have been an attempt on the part of these temple Servants to alienate these holdings, the Pattas of these lands were made out on 30th October 187

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 146 Dy 7th September 1892, intimating as your opinion that under Clause B of Govt. Notification No. 266 Dy 17th November 1877, a notice may be issued to the alienees to restore the lands assigned for service in the Channakeshavaswami temple at Bamerighatta, Anekal Taluk and that, if they fail to do so, the lands may be summarily resumed and restored to the Institution, I am directed to state that the rules laid down in the said Notification are applicable ~~to~~ only to the Inam lands attached to the religious and Charitable Institutions, but the lands now in question are ordinary Sirkar Kandayam lands registered jointly in the names of the temple and some of these lands have to recover them. The question now remains as regards No. 1 & 3. Though there is a general assertion that these lands had been lightly and favourably assessed in favor of the Temple Servants as part remuneration of this Temple duties I cannot find any documentary evidence to shew such a Concession - In the absence of such a Concession & assuming that lands had been fully assessed, no special obligation could thereby be created against the holders of the lands to render any service to the Temple, though they might happen to be Temple Servants.

From pa. 19 of the Memo prepared in the Revenue Office it appears that the Settlement of these Villages was then in progress. Before finally giving my opinion I should look to know whether these references to in this correspondence were ably assessed, & whether any cases to the usual prevailing rates on which lands were imposed upon them.
